ORDER ADOPTING REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

Having reviewed Magistrate Judge Kennard P. Foster's Amended Report and Recommendation that Jaime M. Gwinn's supervised release be revoked, pursuant to Title 18 U.S.C. §3401(i), Rule 32.1(a)(1) Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and Title 18 U.S.C. §3583, the Court now approves and adopts the Report and Recommendation as the entry of the Court, and orders (a) a sentence imposed of confinement of 1 day, and the Court finds the one day of incarceration has been served; (b) after service of the one-day incarceration, the defendant will serve two years of supervised release, the first three months of which he will be subject to home electronic monitoring. His supervised release will be under the same conditions imposed at sentencing; (c) as a new condition of supervised release, defendant will not consume any alcoholic beverages; (d) if not a current condition of defendant's supervised release, he will undergo appropriate alcohol and drug treatment and/or counseling, at the discretion of the United States Parole and Probation Office; and

(e) if not already a condition of his supervised release, defendant will be subject to search of his person, residence and vehicle by the United States Parole and Probation Office.

SO ORDERED this 24th day of January, 2011.
